School Council Minutes – 17th May 2023

Present: Mrs Webb and Mrs Geall
All school councilors: Year 3, 4, 5 and 6
Infant school councilors

Agenda:

- The older children planted some of the saplings in the school field.
- Both infant and junior children have written letters to various establishments asking for raffle prizes for the upcoming summer fayre.
- Other children coloured in posters advertising the summer fayre.

Other business:

- The sponsored skip raised £1,177.00 for the junior school. The money will go towards the wish list the school council has drawn up for the sensory garden.
- Caterlink are coming into school to meet with Mrs Wallis to discuss the school dinners. Mrs Wallis thanked the school council for gathering the likes, dislikes and changes that the school would like to see.
- The school council has received a lot of knitted flowers from parents/carers and are looking forward to making the flower garlands for the sensory garden.
- If you have any unwanted gifts/toys or books that you would like to donate to the school council for their stall at the summer fayre, please hand in to reception with a note explaining that it is for Mrs Ceall or Mrs Webb.
